  - Current Federal Government employees. (Current GS employees at the same grade or one grade lower than the advertised position grade may apply. )

Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) leads the development, negotiation, and presentation of the National Intelligence Program (NIP) budget to the President and the Congress. The CFO's three main responsibilities include resource management (budget analysis, formulation, justification, and execution), performance planning and evaluation, and financial management improvement.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Lead the performance planning process and results for assigned programs and/or mission objectives; advise, support, and ensure performance requirements, goals, measures and assigned activities are established, tracked, and reported.
- Lead budget justification planning and production processes; provide programmatic guidance and advice to IC agencies to ensure budget justification materials are produced and delivered to Congress.
- Lead the development of IC performance efforts, resource justifications, management actions, and legislative reviews; monitor and summarize Congressional budget actions, provide substantive input for appeals to Congressional budget markups.
- Lead the review and development of Congressional budget testimony, responses to Congressional queries, Questions for the Record, Congressionally Directed Actions, and letters, memoranda and reports regarding program, budget and execution issues.
- Provide expert advice and guidance in support of IC performance planning, resource management and/or budget justification process improvement efforts.
- Lead critical reviews of Program-specific Assessment measures or resource alternatives for assigned Programs and/or mission objectives, and make recommendations.
- Interface and collaborate with the National Intelligence Strategy (NIS) mission owners, National Intelligence Managers, and/or IC functional oversight offices to develop, define, and monitor performance information and resource needs to satisfy priority requirements.
- Examine, analyze, develop and present a variety of performance results, resource adjustment recommendations, briefings, and other pertinent communications.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of performance management, budget formulation, programming, and budget execution processes for IC programs, a defense agency, or a military service.
- Superior ability to apply analytic, diagnostic, and qualitative techniques, conduct independent research, filter and synthesize data sufficient to identify and evaluate alternatives and produce clear, logical, and concise products and recommendations to resolve complex, interrelated program and budgetary problems and issues.
- Demonstrated superior organizational and interpersonal skills, specifically, the superior ability to plan strategically and manage competing priorities, the ability to negotiate, build consensus, and work effectively in a collaborative environment, and the superior ability to establish and maintain professional networks across all levels of management both internal and external. Possess superior oral and written communication skills.
- Expert knowledge of the IC, Department of Defense (DoD), Office of Management and Budget, and Congressional budget processes and procedures.
