Component Mission:

The Office of the Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Strategy and Engagement (S&E) is responsible for aligning the Intelligence Community’s current focus with future strategies to drive national security outcomes. S&E positions the IC to achieve the future vision by leading transformative initiatives and cutting-edge research and development; supporting and spurring innovations; re-imagining data management in the digital age; establishing clear policy direction; and actively engaging with senior policymakers and the public.

The Office of Policy and Strategy sets the strategy and policy framework to ensure current activities are aligned with future vision and is responsible for developing and coordinating ODNI and Intelligence Community (IC) policy, setting IC strategy, and advising the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) on initiatives. The mission of the Strategy Management Division (SMD) is to promote an integrated intelligence enterprise by developing the National Intelligence Strategy, evaluating the IC’s strategic posture and progress, and enabling and integrating successful strategic planning, execution, and assessment efforts.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- Assist in leading, overseeing, refining, and promoting effective approaches to improve the development and execution of IC strategies—including the National Intelligence Strategy (NIS)—to include facilitating senior-level strategic decisions, and providing expert recommendations to ODNI senior leadership.

- Advance ODNI’s approach to developing, communicating, and evaluating strategic direction needed to lead the IC; ensure direction is value-added, clear, consistent, and outcome oriented; ensure efforts are focused on the most significant issues aligned to broader national security and organizational goals.

- Lead and oversee initiatives to promote improved leadership, direction, and communication for the broader IC strategic planning community of interest.

- Assist in leading, overseeing, and managing enterprise-level assessment of IC progress towards NIS goals, as well as identifying significant global threats and opportunities. Advise and ensure performance requirements, goals, measures, and assessment activities are established, met, tracked, and reported.

- Lead, initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with senior policymakers across the IC in order to coordinate strategy development activities and evolving requirements and promote the implementation of mission and enterprise objectives.
Advise and engage senior IC leadership on strategic priorities, opportunities, gaps, and interdependencies to link resources to strategy; lead and oversee the communication of emerging strategic issues and trends that impact IC strategies, plans, and posture, and make recommendations for improvements.

Lead a team of professional staff and assess performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal development.

Lead, plan, and oversee efforts to create a culture of strategic planning across ODNI and the IC by promoting best practices in strategy development, execution, and evaluation and communicating priorities, activities, and impact of the strategy to the IC to promote shared vision, values, and goals.

Provide analysis and recommendations to ensure that ODNI and IC element plans and programs align with objectives of the National Intelligence Strategy.

Lead and oversee the planning and completion of assessments to evaluate IC progress towards mission and enterprise objectives and determine how well the IC is postured for future environments.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Expert knowledge of IC organizations’ missions in order to develop the national-level strategies and policies necessary to support U.S. national security and foreign policy interests.

- Expert leadership experience and analytic expertise to support strategy development, implementation, and evaluation efforts.

- Expert ability to evaluate strategic trends, strategy and implementation plans, results, and programmatic data, propose innovative solutions, and implement change.

- Superior ability to communicate clearly, both orally and in written reports, and to analyze logically, synthesize, and evaluate multiple sources of information for their inclusion in briefings and written documents.

- Expert organizational and interpersonal skills to facilitate diverse forums, manage competing priorities, and advocate new ideas/concepts/processes.

- Expert leadership experience and superior ability to prioritize and manage competing tasks with differing timelines.

Desired Requirements:

- Superior ability to exercise independent judgment on time-sensitive issues and work collaboratively across the IC.
