Component Mission:

The Office of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) leads the development, negotiation, and presentation of the National Intelligence Program (NIP) budget to the President and the Congress. The CFO's three main responsibilities include resource management (budget analysis, formulation, justification, and execution), performance planning and evaluation, and financial management improvement.

Major Duties and Responsibilities:

- Lead, manage and oversee efforts to analyze country, mission and intelligence capabilities and identify key intelligence program, mission, and resource issues, evaluate alternatives, and provide structured recommendations to IC leadership in accordance with IC policies and procedures, and viewpoints from key stakeholders.
- Initiate, cultivate, and maintain productive working relationships with peers across the ODNI staff, Non-Defense IC program elements and Departments, and Office of Management and Budget (OMB), to collaborate and coordinate on IC strategic priorities, issues/opportunities, and inter-organizational dependencies. Ensure intelligence resources are aligned with national strategies.
- Lead and/or participate in IC-wide working groups, committees, and technical meetings as required and provide expert advice and resource guidance as appropriate.
- Lead and support performance assessments of the IC's progress against Community- wide priorities and strategic objectives to determine how well the IC is postured for future environments.
- Oversee the development of briefings, reports, and presentations to organizational leadership, senior policymakers, and senior U.S. Government officials and provide expert analysis and recommendations that ensure IC strategic plans and programs align with strategic objectives.
- Assist in the development and application of advanced analytic methods and techniques to improve data collection and data analysis across the spectrum of mission, country and capabilities.
- Identify, interpret and assess impacts of Executive or Congressional language on planned or existing resources affecting program activities and attainment of mission objectives.
- Participate actively in development of strategic guidance (e.g. National Intelligence Strategy, Consolidated Intelligence Guidance, fiscal guidance, etc.) for IC programs and activities.
- Lead and collaborate on the review and editing of IC element budget resource justification materials that IC CFO produces for Congress.
- Provide substantive input to, and lead as required, the development of Congressional budget testimony, responses to Congressional inquiries, Questions for the Record, Congressionally Directed Actions, and letters, memoranda and reports regarding program, budget and execution issues.

- Lead a team of professional staff, assess performance, collaborate and oversee goal setting, and provide feedback on personal and professional development.

Mandatory Requirements:

- Demonstrated knowledge of the IC, Department of Defense (DOD) or Non-Defense Departments, OMB, and Congressional budget processes and procedures.
- Demonstrated ability to conduct independent research and synthesize data to analyze complex IC program, mission and capability issues, and produce clear, logical, and concise recommendations and products.
- Demonstrated leadership skills to include the ability to plan strategically and manage multiple tasks and projects under short deadlines.
- Strong interpersonal and superior oral and written communication skills to collaborate with internal and external stakeholders and make recommendations to ODNI senior leadership on current and future Non-Defense NIP resources.
