Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

The National Intelligence Council (NIC) consists of the most senior intelligence analysts supporting the Director of National Intelligence (DNI) in carrying out responsibilities as the head of the Intelligence Community (IC) and as the principal adviser to the President for intelligence matters related to national security. The NIC produces a variety of all-source, IC coordinated intelligence reports, including its flagship product, the National Intelligence Estimate, which represents the Intelligence Community's most authoritative statement on a key national security issue.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

Serve as the NIO for Military Issues; lead NIC and IC strategic and estimative analysis of global military issues, notable future of warfare and other cross-cutting issues. Advise and provide expert assessments to the DNI on worldwide military issues in support of the DNI's role of principal intelligence adviser to the President.

Orchestrate and direct Community-wide and long-term strategic analysis of military issues including NIEs and other Community papers (IC Assessments, NIC Assessments and Memos, and Sense of the Community Memoranda). Foster IC weapons technical analysis through oversight of the Weapons and Space Systems Intelligence Committee.

Prepare and coordinate background papers and briefing books for the DNI’s participation in National Security Council Principals Committee, Cabinet meetings and Congressional testimony.

Assist with the development of the analytic portion of the relevant NIM Unified Intelligence Strategies (UIS) in concert with analysts from across the IC.
Establish and sustain a professional network with IC analysts, analytic managers, and collection managers on worldwide military issues. Foster ties with DoD and the Commands to add richness to IC strategic military analysis.

Brief senior IC members, policy makers, military decisionmakers, members of Congress, and other major stakeholders as necessary on worldwide military issues.

Review and analyze research and production plans on worldwide military issues of the Community’s analytic components, identify redundancies and gaps, direct mitigation strategies to address gaps, and advise the DNI on gaps and shortfalls in analytic capabilities across the IC.

Establish and foster liaison relationships with academia, the business community, and other non-government subject matter experts to ensure the IC has a comprehensive understanding of worldwide military issues.

Serve as an active member of the NIC Council, ensuring a multidisciplinary approach to strategic estimates, and foster close ties to the DAMA and his staff.

Lead, manage, and direct a professional level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

Recognized substantive expertise in military analysis and of the IC’s military analysis community, and the ability to lead IC production on military issues.

Excellent analytic management skills with proven ability to effectively plan, lead, and implement complex analytical projects. Ability to work with and represent the community when analytic views differ among agencies.

Outstanding interpersonal skills and ability to work effectively, independently, and in a team or collaborative environment.

Strong oral and written communication skills, including ability to clearly convey complex information to audiences of all levels of expertise on military issues.

Proven critical thinking skills and reasoning skills and demonstrated ability to prepare strategic finished intelligence assessments with emphasis on clear organization, concise and logical presentation.

Extensive knowledge of and ability to apply analytic, diagnostic and qualitative techniques sufficient to produce authoritative finished intelligence products and the ability to employ new methodological approaches to analyze information.

Expert leadership skills, including the ability to effectively direct taskings, assess and manage performance, and support personal and professional development of all levels of personnel.

Key Requirements and How to Apply
