Component Mission
The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of Mission Integration (MI) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. MI is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, MI is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. MI is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)
- Supports the Executive and National Intelligence Manager for Economic Security and Financial Intelligence (EFE) in efforts to integrate and advance collection related to the office's five mission areas: economic security, investment security, energy security, threat finance and undersea cables.
- Maintain effective working relationships with other ODNI and IC components and other government agencies to address issues that span multiple mission or program areas. Serve as one of two collection subject matter experts responsible for supporting EFE.
- Perform leadership functions in aligning and integrating the IC collection enterprise's total array of collection capabilities against the nation's most important strategic issues related to economic security and financial intelligence.
- Partner with the relevant IC organizations in assessing progress against key intelligence gaps of the UIS.
- Conceptualize, develop, analyze, and create strategic collection initiatives and requirements to ensure their alignment with the National Intelligence Priorities Framework (NIPF) objectives, as well as ODNI and EFE mission and goals.
- Lead, plan, and prepare briefings, reports, and presentations to organizational leadership in a manner that meets their specified requirements and provide expert opinion and recommendations with regard to IC capabilities in the EFE mission space that ensure IC strategic plans and programs align with strategic goals.
- Conducts strategic prioritization of mission management activities.
- Serve as the EFE representative for developing, executing, and evaluating, related portions of the office's Unified Intelligence Strategy.
- Manage to ensure full range of understanding of customer requirements related to assigned missions and ensuring these requirements have been conveyed to and coordinated with the ODNI and the IC.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements
- Expert knowledge of IC organizations' collection missions, including demonstrated ability to evaluate collection-associated trends, strategy and implementation plans, results, and programmatic data, propose innovative solutions, and implement change.
- Demonstrated leadership skills and ability to lead interagency working groups, build coalitions with IC elements to achieve common goals and produce lasting outcomes.
- Superior knowledge of one or more of EFE's mission areas; IC mission posture, structure, capabilities, processes, and policy development. Demonstrated knowledge of key collection issues facing the IC in this mission space.
Desired Requirements

- Demonstrated ability to design and implement integration strategies for IC initiatives and programs, including the demonstrated ability to manage human, financial, and information resources.
- Superior ability to work both in group settings as well as self-orient on team strategies, goals, tasks, and other related projects.
- Demonstrated analytical and critical thinking skills, including the ability to think strategically, identify needs and requirements, develop recommendations, and evaluate outcomes against goals and objectives.
