...and Praise to Allah for the good and the bad, God said; (We afflict you with the good and the bad as an ordeal). He also said (You may love something and it is bad for you, and hate something and it is good for you). Do not think it is bad for you but it is good for you. And after God has told the stories of the Prophets (PBU them) in Surat Hud, he said, All that we relate to you of the stories of the apostles, with it we make the heart firm. In them there cometh to thee the truth, as well as an exhortation and a message of remembrance to those who believe. And in the story of Ayyub (PBUH) he ended it with; it is a reminder to the believers and to those who pray. And in the Prophet's tradition, the real believers say Praise is to Allah if they were afflicted by the good they were thankful, and if they were hit by the bad, they wait.

And in the story of our mother, 'A'ishah, God be satisfied with her, in the incident of Ufuk, some of them were mourned. Some of them said, he was better than I, and he told his wife, she is better than you. God said: If the believers thought that they are better, and they said it, it is a clear lie.

In the battle of Tabuk, when the Messenger was asked, What has Ka'ab done? Some said, look at his clothes, and others said, what a bad thing you said... we did not hear anything but good about him. And Joseph (PBUH) when he was released from the prison, he wrote on his door, among other things, recognizing the friends.

The second matter, God mentioned in his book about the battle of Uhud, and of those companions who were killed. There were seventy with Asadallah and the Messenger's uncle. God said (Of you, who wants life) and (You refused after he showed you what you desire) (And those who flee when the two forces met, the devil caused them to stumble, and the Prophet ordered them to be pardoned and asked God to forgive them, and to consult them in the matter so life do not stop and there will be confrontation between the two sides. Therefore God said (And consult them in the matter). I did not mention this for a thing but (TN: page ends.)
