

Full translation

In the name of God, The Most Compassionate, The Most Merciful.

Dear brother Badr Khan, may God protect you.

Peace and blessings be upon you.

I hope that you and the respectable brothers are in good health, and may God reunite us soon, as it pleases Him.

1- We received an undated letter from you, and we thanked God to hear your good news.

2- With regards to what you mentioned about your dear brother, 'Abdallah Khan informed us that the issue was resolved between the two, and we agreed on everything he asked for. God is the one to grant success to what pleases Him.

3- With regards to your last idea, we hope you coordinate it with 'Abdallah Khan.

4- Please mention the date in your next letter, God willing. In closing, please give my regards to everybody, and let them know that they are in our prayers. May God accept your fasting, staying up late to pray, and your good deeds. Please remember us in your prayers in these blessed days.

Peace be upon you,

Tuesday 27 Ramadan 1423, which corresponds to 3 December 2002.