

In the name of God, the most merciful

The existing money will be divided as follows:

1-To Azmarai, may God protect him

- The available amount in euros: 4,000
- The available amount in rupees: 12,350

Debt owed by the Shaykh, may God protect him, is: 30,000 euros

This debt is based upon a request from the Shaykh to transfer it to a specific entity. It was transferred in chunks after it was exchanged for rupees. It was done with an authorization from Shaykh Mahmud.

The amount that needs to be transferred: 30,000 euros x 115 (the exchange rate for the rupees at that time) = 3,450,000 rupees

Amount sent: 2,450,000 rupees
Amount remaining: 1,000,000 rupees

This was written on 20 December 2010.

Note: The remaining amount (1,000,000 rupees) is not with me at the Shaykh's fund.

Mahmud: The remaining amount will be sent around 26 January 2011.

2- To Sa'd al-Ansar (may God rest his soul)

Total: 14,000 rupees and they are as follows:

- A local man returned 2,000 rupees that Sa'd had given to him to buy mosquito nets.
- 7,000 rupees for hard drive that the brothers used and paid for
- 5,000 rupees for the hard drive for Sa'd's personal computer

3- For the children of Shaykh Dawud, may God have mercy on him:

Page: 2

An amount of 65,200 rupees

The sub-total is:  $12,350 + 14,000 + 65,200 = 91,550$  rupees
In euros: 4,000 for the amounts in the fund.

Mahmud: God willing, an amount of 65,200 rupees will be sent to Dawud's children on 26 January 2011.

Note: There is documentation for Azmarai's debt of 5,000 euros to the general budget for Zayn's external work.