In the Name of God the Most Merciful

Thanks be to God, the lord of the universe. Prayers and peace be upon the master of messengers.

To the beloved father, may God protect you and guide you.

God's peace, mercy, and blessings be upon you.

I pray to God Almighty for this letter to find you and those with you well, in good health, and full of faith in God's victory.

My beloved shaykh, I sent Uncle Bakr's letter via a brother at the end of the month of Dhu al-Hijjah. Through the will of God, this brother, to whom I gave Uncle Bakr's letter and a letter that I wrote to deliver to Khalid Sa'd's maternal uncle was captured on the 10th of the month of Muharram with a group of people in Pakistan. I have not heard from him, and I do not know whether he delivered it or not.

Shaykh Sa'id told me that you wrote him about activating the connection with our friend. Praise be to God, we found a brother who is going to the Peninsula, and I sent a letter with him to our friend. God willing, we will get connected with him soon. God is the giver of success.

To the dear father, praise be to God, the hardships that we encounter in this world are harsh and immense, including losing brothers, spouses, and children, and discouragement from people. However, by God, I am with you as long as we are serving the faith to lift up the banner "There is no god but God, and Muhammad is His prophet."

Forgive us and do not forget us in your prayers for patience and persistence. May God reward you with a million blessings for all that you are doing for your grandchildren. Our greetings to all those who are around you. May God reunite us with you.

God's peace, mercy, and blessings be upon you.

Your flawed son, Abu-'Abdallah al-((Halabi))
