Governments constrained, new large economies exerting influence, large firms shaping global connectedness, globalization diversifying, employment disruptions increasing, trade environment fragmenting, national debt rising, powerful firms expanding, national debt rising, trade environment fragmenting, globalization diversifying, employment disruptions increasing, governments constrained, new large economies exerting influence, large firms shaping global connectedness, globalization diversifying, economic activity tilting to Asia, evolving international economic order, implications.